Toccat, Adagio and Fugue in C Major--BWV 564

This image displays a musical score for the Toccata, Adagio and Fugue in C Major, BWV 564 by Johann Sebastian Bach. The score is written for a single melodic line, likely for a lute or a single-staff instrument, and is organized into six systems, each containing three measures. The notation is in C major, indicated by the absence of sharps or flats in the key signature. The first system begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The melody is characterized by a series of eighth-note patterns, often grouped in threes (triplets), and features a prominent descending scale in the final measure of the first system. The subsequent systems continue this melodic development, incorporating various rhythmic values and melodic intervals. The score is presented in a clear, black-and-white format, typical of a printed musical manuscript.
