Voyevoda, Symphonic Ballad after Mickiewicz, Op. 78

This musical score is for a symphonic ballad. It features a complex arrangement of instruments, including woodwinds, strings, and a large keyboard section. The score is divided into three systems, each containing multiple staves. The first system includes five staves for woodwinds and strings, and a grand staff for the keyboard. The second system continues the woodwind and string parts, with the keyboard part featuring intricate arpeggiated patterns. The third system shows the woodwinds and strings playing more active roles, while the keyboard part continues with its characteristic arpeggiated texture. The score is written in a key with three flats and a 3/4 time signature. Dynamics such as p (piano) and mf (mezzo-forte) are indicated throughout. The notation includes various musical symbols such as notes, rests, and slurs, with some passages marked with triplets.
